

First Grade Homework #23

Week of March 16th, 2015

Due 3-23-15

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Be sure to attach all work in order to receive credit. Thank you.

1. Read: For at least 20 min. each night (either parent to child or child to parent). Please write how many minutes read each night:

M _____ T _____ W _____ TH. _____

2. Spelling: Long i words spelled; -ie and -igh

Spelling Words: lie, tie, high, might, right, night, bright, light, pie, tight, above, laugh

Challenge Words: daylight, highlight, tonight

Please choose 3 ways to practice your words. The activity list is in your daily folder.

_____ # _____ # _____

3. Math: Please tear-out and complete pages: 127-132

4. Writing: Write three goals you have for the third trimester. Make sure they are things you want to work on at school! Goals should be academic or behavioral. Some examples are:

*I would like to read a Henry and Mudge chapter book by myself.

*I would like to be able to solve word problems on my own.

*My goal is to write one story a week during Writer's Workshop.

*I will try my best to be on blue three times a week.

*I will work on raising my hand in class and taking turns.

*I would like to create my own Keynote slideshow about _____.

5. Sight Word Folder: Due to the short week we will NOT be testing sight words this week.

6. Fluency/ Comprehension: Read "I am Sick Today." Be sure to time how many words per minute you read each night and mark it on your paper.

O-exceptional work, goes beyond and above expectations.
S-neatly done, complete and on
N-incorrect, incomplete and/or late.
U- work unattempted.

Comments/Reminders:

*Dismissal at 1:00 all week!

*Green Food Buffet on 3/17

Parent Signature: _____

Third Trimester Goals

Name: _____

Please help your child come up with three goals for this trimester. We would like at least one goal to pertain to reading, writing, or math. Please have your child write their goals on the lines below. They should use their best soundspelling for words they don't know.

1.

2.

3.