- ☐ 3. Math: Complete pages 33-40. Be sure to do both sides of each page, and write your name on each one. Staple to this cover!

- ☐ 4. Writing: Write 3 or more sentences telling about a book you read this week. Be sure to write in a complete sentence, using capitals, periods, and fingerspaces. You can tell a summary of the story, write all about the main character, tell a new ending to the story, or even your favorite part. Don't forget to color a picture to go with your writing. When you are done, share your work with an adult!

- ☐ 5. Fluency: Complete the fluency page Sam is Sad.

- ☐ 6. Sight Word folder: Study your next 10 words and bring your folder back on Friday! For fun, practice reading them in silly voices.

- ☐ 7. CHECK THE WEBSITE! We post reminders and news there every week!

O-exceptional work, extra reading, and spelling were done, work is neat, picture is colored. Student went above and beyond expectations.

S-work is neatly done, complete, and on time.

N-work is incorrect, incomplete, and/or late
